Now, I would like to say to this House just one word, not to affect their votes. I have a peculiar interest, not a monetary interest, in this bill. Five years ago I was in a boat fishing under a high dam with this soldier. We were swamped and thrown into a miniature maelstrom under that dam. He was drowned and I got out. Now you can see my personal in-terest in the matter. He was as honor-side and brave a man as I ever knew.

A fatal railroad wreck occurred on the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad, hear Carmen interchange, this morning, Three sections of a coal train piled up and caught fire. The secident occurred on a bringe and the trains toppied over into the ravine. One man was killed and four injured by the accident. Three sections of a coal train were running close to each other. Near Carmen the first section stopped and the flagman was sent out. The engineer of the second section saw the signal and slowed, but could not stop until near the caboose of the first. The flagman of the second section did not have time enough to signal and drove that into the first section. Fireman William Eaxier, of Bradford, who was on his engine in the second section, had his arm so badly crushed that it was amoutated this afternoon. The who was on his engine in the second Section, had his arm so badly crashed that it was amoutated this afternoon. The middle brakeman, named McPhilamee, who was in the caboose, was buried beneath the wreck, and it is feared was buried in the fire which followed. No trace of his body can be found. Conductor James Morrow, of Bradford, was also badly hurr and bruised, and another, whose name could not be learned, was injured. Flagman Traynor was injured about the arms and body, but not seriously. Morrow and Baxier were taken to Bradford. Morrow was taken home and Baxter was removed to the hospital, where his arm was amputated.

But little can be learned about McFhilamee, who was burned to death or lost under the ice. He came here recently from the South, and was not very well known. He has been a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line. It is thought that he has a wife living at his former residence, but this is not positively known. Two cars were destroyed by fire.

FIRED ON WITHOUT WARNING An Apparently Unprovoked Charge of the Military in Brooklyn.

SEVERAL SMALL RIOTS DURING THE DAY

The Linemen Strike, But Finally Return to Work - More Care Running Than on Any Previous Day.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 22.-A charge was made by the military at Broadway and Haisey streets at 11 jo'clock to-night. Some small boys had been jeering the soldiers, and there was but few men about. A drunken man from New York started to cross Halsey street from John Conway's saloon, on the corner. He was fired upon without warning and hit in the face, sustaining a compound fracture of the jaw. His name is Thomas Abnes. He will die. Mr. Mitchell, of Brooklyn, was shot in the arm. Two bullets from the guns of the militia crashed through the large plate glass windows of the candy store of John H. Eckoff, narrowly missing the clerk behind the counter. Mr. Echoff's daughter, Sophia, who was standing in front of the store, was just missed by a bullet, Dr. T. E. Wilson attended the wounded man, and was an eye-witness of the shooting. He says there were but few people about, and much less excuse for the shooting than last night, when a large crowd at the same place created quite a disturbance. An ambulance took the New Yorker to the St. Mary's Hospital, and Mitchell went to his home.

that his men did not want to injure any one; that they realized that firing at a rowd meant the probable maining and death of many persons. He added, how-ever, that if duty demanded it, his men would fire on the mobs. The point has now been reached when forbearance ceases to be a virtue. The troops have now been ordered to fire upon any person seen throwing a missile or shooting at them. Sharpshooters have been detailed to pick off people on housetops and in windows who throw or shoot from their sheltered locations at the troops, the police or the cars operated by non-union

The mobs do not yet appear to realize these facts. The citizens of Brooklyn do not heed the proclamation of the Mayor warning them to avoid crowds and to refrain from assembling in the streets and in the vicinity of the car depots.

Presidents Lewis, Norton and Wicker

Presidents Lewis, Norton and Wicker say that the outlook is brighter for the resumption of normal traffic on their ing in the number of cars operated, but did not succeed in starting cars as promptly and as quickly as they planned to do last night. President Norton did, however, run cars on three lines which have been closed since the strike was begin.

FIRST BIOTING OF THE DAY. The first disturbance of the morning The first disturbance of the morning was in the vicinity of Fifty-eighth street and Third-avenue stables. The strikers made an attack on a wagon containing a motorman and conductor. The wagon was on its way to the stables. A howling mob followed the vehicle, yeiling, jeering and throwing missiles of all kinds at the men. By the time the wagon had reached the stables a mob of nearly a at the men. By the time the wagon had reached the stables a mob of nearly a thousand had gathered, and the situation looked quite threatening. At this point the officer in command of the troops ordered a charge, and the streets were soon cleared. During the charge a shot was the charge as hot was fired, but no one was hit.

An assault was made about 6 o'clock this morning on Inspector Jenning, or the Brooklyn Heights Company. He was attacked by a gang of strikers near the Halsey-street station, and was badly beaten, but not seriously injured.

The Mayor, Corporation Counsel Mc-lonald, Police Commissioner Weller, City Works Commissioner White and other members of the cabinet entered into a conference at il o'clock this morning at the City Hall. At 1 o'clock the meeting adjourned, and Mayor Schleren, through his secretary, issued the following proclamation as a result of the conference:
"Law and order must prevail first in this community, must be respected by all, and must be enforced upon all, ever if it takes the entire force of the State.'

JUSTICE GAYNOR WILL BULF. Lawyer McCabeau L. THE MAYOR'S VIEWS. Mayor Schleren, after the talk with the members of his cabinet, said that the situation is unchanged from yesterday. He intimated that no immediate action toward calling our more troops would be taken, but that if disorder is not stopped the entire militia of the Stare will be the entire militia of the State will be summoned. The linemen of the Gates-avenue line held a meeting this morning. They talked the situation over, decided to strike, and then returned the trucks to the stables. The superintendent of the Gates-avenue line says the men did not strike, but were driven away by strikers, and not allowed to repair the lines which were cut near Central avenue. The police discovered a gang of twenty men in wagons at 3,45 o'clock on east Parkway, attempting to cut down the wires of the Nostrand-avenue and Bergenstreet lines. As soon as the wire-cutters got a sight of the police they fled and escaped. There was no disturbance at the Flatbush-avenue car stables during the day. The militia guarded the barns and patrolled the line for a considerable distance. Everything was quiet. The distance. Everything was quiet. The cars began to run early. The first car out was delayed fifteen minutes at the en-trance to the Plaza, where the track was obstructed.

GENERAL M'ALPIN SATISFIED.

Adjutant-General McAlpin arrived in Brooklyn at 4:30. He went to the City Hall, and was closeted with the Mayor for an hour. Thence he went to brigade headquarters, where he was closeted for some time with Brigadier-General Meters and members of his staff Later. Leer and members of his staff. Later the Mayor, accompanied by Police Commissioner Weiler, went to brigade head-quarters and took part in the conference, which assumed something of the nature of a council of war.

Those present were Adjutant-General McAlpin, Mayor Schieren, Colonel Mar-win, Military Secretary to Governor Mor-ton; Colonel Greene, Assistant Inspector-General, and Major Burbank, U. S. A. Upon leaving Adjutant McAipin of pressed himself as being fully satisf McAipin exwith the situation. He further said that the Mayor had expressed the belief that the force of soldiery now in this city was fully competent to cope with the strikers and the existing situation did not warrant any further military display. For the first time since the inauguration of the strike the Brooklyn, Queens County and Suburban Company began this morning to run cars on its Raiph avenue line. Company C, Seventy-first Regiment, numbering sixty men, in charge of Captain Francis, were on guard. The company continued to operate this branch up to 6 P. M., when it was decided that it would not be safe to run any more cars to-day.

POLICE DRAW THEIR REVOLVEES On Fulton street, between Ralph and Patchen avenues, very serious trouble was threatened during the day. The tracks were piled up with large beams, huge stones, ash barrels, old stoves and numerous other obstructions. These caused much delay to the cars, and gave the strikers an opportunity to plead with the non-Union men to desert their posts. The trouble culminated at 1:30 P. when car No. 115 came along. Near the platforms, seized both men by necks, yanked them off and threw them into the howling mob. Once there, they were kicked and punched unmercifully. A HOT FIGHT RESULTS.

Then a dozen strikers picked both mer up bodily, and ran down a side street with them. About a dozen cars had the meantime come up, and the police on the platforms drew their sticks and fet upon the crowd. They smashed right and left, generally landing on some striker's head. The crowd retaliated with stones and for a few minutes the fight was hot. The police grabbed two leaders of the mob and placed them under arrest. The strikers tried to rescue their brethren, and were only prevented from so doing by the police drawing their revolvers and driving the mob back. The temper of the strikers was now thoroughly aroused, and they stoned the cars unceasingly. It was found impossible for the few policemen in the neighborhood to cope with the strikers, and reinforcements were sent for. In a few minutes a detachment of officers under command of Captain Dyer, and a portion of Troop A, Lieutenant Badgley in charge, came up. At the sight of the galloping horses the mob beat a hasty retreat, rushing into near-by saloons, up side streets and across lots. The cavalry immediately formed a pickett line and paraded up and down the sidewalks, forcing idlers to move rapidly along.

WOMEN AMONG THE BIOTERS.

There were a large number of in the throng, and they hooted and jeered worse than the men. Many of the wo-men, with babes in their arms, crowded about the cars, and their voices, crying in shrill tones, "Scabs," "Scabs," "Scabs," "Scabs," could be heard for blocks. The police were somewhat gentle with them, but for all that the women stoned them on every opportunity. Many of them taunt ed the strikers for not tearing the non mion men from the cars, and one bis Irish woman offered to take a prisoner from a policeman if some one would hold a child she carried in her arms.

Up and down Fulton street from Ralph o Tompkins avenue Troop A paraded, keeping the crowds moving. This was a difficult task, for the strikers would only be driven from one place to assemble in another. They were in a very jigly mood, and the sight of so many trolley cars stirred them to a boiling pitch. But the cavalry did quite effective work, and their cavalry did quite effective work, and efforts doubtless prevented a riot.

About 2:30 a number of strikers rushed up Rochester avenue to Fulton street, threw a rope over the trolley wire and attempted to puls it down. The cavalry charged on them and they fled.

WORKMAN CONNELLY'S GRIEVANCE, Asked about the situation to-night. Master Workmar Connelly, of District

Master Workmar Assembly 75, said: "Every lineman will be ordered out in the morning, and those who remain in will know what they are doing, thing is quet, and the men are firm."

Master Workman Connelly said that members of the Seventh Regiment ossession of the Odd-Fellows' Hall, on Palmetto street, near Myrtle avenue, at

THE MILITARY ACCOUNT OF IT.

The military account of the affair va-ries materially from Conelly's statement.

It is as follows: When the troops were ordered out to protect the starting of the first cars from Ridgewood, on the Gates-avenue line, at 3:30 P. M. to-day, Major Abrams, of the Seventh Regiment, noticed that a large number of the strikers, who had been standing nearly all day in front of their headquarters, retired within the building. The police at his re-quest followed immediately and caused the doors of the hall to be locked. For over two hours nearly two hundred men were securely boxed. No papers were seized, nor were any of their rights invaded, save keeping them in voluntary confinement until ail the cars sent out

ON THE GATES AVENUE LINE.

There was trouble all day on the Gates avenue line. One shot was fired by a Seventh Regiment man before it was over. Early in the day President Norton. of the Brooklyn City System, which controls the line, announced that it would be operated. He succeeded in moving ten cars over the line. This number does not mean that ten cars were in operation all day. As a matter of fact, they were started out close together, after 3:30 P. M., and were hustled back into the carhouse before 6 o'clock. Major Abrams and Companies B, D and G, of the Seventh Regiment, 300 strong, were on duty this morning at the depots. The first car, No. 524, was started out at 3:30 P. M. It was escorted by Major Abrams and a detach-ment of troops. At Knickerbocker avenue and Palmetto street the militia charged a crowd which had collected. Captain Kitzer, of the police, fired a shot, as did also one of the militiamen. On Gates avenue the police ordered all windows closed. One man hissed the militiamen and would not take his head in, and a militiaman fired. The shot hit the win-dow sash, and the man retreated. The first car had its windows smashed. Others were hit with stones and bricks. All were stopped at 6 o'clock.

RAN CARS ALL DAY. Superintendent Quinn, of the Atlantic-avenue line, stated to-night that the com-pany had run cars all day over nearly all the lines of the system. The first car on ry prevented bloodshed. At one time a the line, he said, was sent out at 5:12, small riot was in progress, and the police and the last car was run into the stables and the last car was run into the stables at 8 o'clock to-night. MORTON TO DEFEND HIS ACTION. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 22 .- Adjutant-General McAlpin and Colonel Marvin, Gov-ernor Morton's military secretary, left for Brooklyn to-day on a special train. The Adjutant-General took this action after consultation by telephone with Mayor Schieren and with Governor Morton. The Governor thought it would be well for General McAlpin to visit Brooklyn and learn the actual situation.

The Governor has received protests from labor organizations against his calling out the State troops, and will short-ly answer the same, to the effect that it was but his duty, under the Constitution, to order out the militia.

The Governor to-day received the following letters from Mayor Schleren, of Brocklyn, which was written yesterday "I desire to thank you for your prompt ness in acceding to my request for ad-ditional troops. The First Brigade reported promptly, and are now on duty.

"At the hour of writing everything is reported to be quiet, and the calling out of the additional force of the National Guard seems to have had a salutary

"It hope that in a few days at most the trouble will be entirely at an end."

HUDSON, N. Y., Jan. 22.—The Twenty-third, separate company, of this city, received an order to-day to report at their armory with field uniforms, camp outfit and three days' rations, ready to move at a moment's notice to Brooklyn.

"HARVEY BLAIR" ON TRIAL.

The Man of Many Adases and Numerous Crimes Arraigned in Baltimore, BALTIMORE, Jan. 22.-The trial of Horace D. Baker, with many aliases, Horace D. Baker, with many aliases, charged with passing forged paper upon the Harford National Bank, of Belair, Md., last May, over the name of George P. Sage, was begun in the Criminal Court to-day. An enormous crowd collected to see the man who, it is alleged, has plied his swindling operations in several States, He was arrested in Vineland, N. J., last summer, escaped from the Belair jall, and was subsequently recaptured in Lansing, Mich, and returned here for trial.

Witnesses to prove Baker's identity were present from Tama, Ia., Richmond, Va., Mannington, W. Va., Pawtucket, R. I., Philadelphia and other places where the prisoner is charged with victimizing banks and merchants. There are two indicaments against Baker, alias Sage, one charging laim with forging a draft for $2,000 on the National Bank, of Pawtucket, R. I., and the other charging forgery for $6,000 on the Farmer's and Merchants' Bank, of Tama, Ia. These drafts were deposited in the Belair Bank and drawn against last April.

It is probable that the trial will last several days, and promises to be very interesting.

Patriotic Mexican Students. Patriotic Mexican Students.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 22.—Three thousand students, accompanied by friends, called on President Diaz at the National Palace to-day, and offered their services in the event of war between Mexico and Guatemala. The President, who was deeply moved, said that relations between the two countries had not yet come to a crisis, but that the diplomatic situation was dangerous and war might result. Peace was necessary to the progress of the Republic, he said, and the Government would not interrupt it unless absolutely compelled to do so.

MORE HAWAIIAN JINGO.

MR, LODGE SUCCEEDS MR. FRYE AS THE PROSECUTOR.

The Indian Appropriation Bill Passed in the House - Nicaragus Canal Bill Debate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.-The Hawaiian question was again debated in the Senate to-day for somewhat over two hours. Mr. Gray occupied the position of defender and advocate of the Administration, and Mr. Lodge that of its prosecutor. The latter senator was plain and outspoken in advocacy of the annexation of the islands, declaring that he disliked to see the American flag pulled down where it had once been run up, or an American foot go back where it had been once advanced. In the course of the discussion, Mr. Hawley took occasion to correct the impression that in yesterday's debate he had charged the President with "conspiring with the Royalist Hawalian conspiring." spirators." What he intended to convey, he said, was that the President had "conferred with them."

The Kyle resolution, on which the discussion has been based, was at the close of the morning hour placed on the calendar, and the remainder of the day's sion was occupied with a speech by Mr. Turple, in opposition to the Nicaragua Canal bill.

Among the petitions and other papers presented in the morning hour were nu merous affidavits and protests from citizens of Alabama, in reference to the recent election in that State, presented by Mr. Allen (Pop., Neb.)
The House pooling bill was reported

The House pooling bill was reported back from the Committee on Inter-State Commerce, by Mr. Butler, favorably and without amendment, and was placed on the calendar, Mr. Chandler, a member of that committee, giving notice of an amendment, requiring proposed changes of rates to be submitted to and approved by the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

The Kyle resolution disapproves "the action of the Administration in with-drawing our warship from the Sandwich Islands," and requests the President to order a vessel to proceed forthwith from San Francisco to Honolulu. Mr. Frye remarked that the discussion on Hawaiian

C., Jan. 22.—After six days' consideration Mr. Holman suc-ceeded to-day in getting the Indian approceeded to-day in getting the Indian appro-priation bill for the year ending June 39, 1896, through the House. A number of amendments were made in its text, how-ever, before the committee of the whole recommended favorable action, chiefly in the way of dropping suggested changes from the established practices by the Indian Bureau.

The House bill authorizing the appoint-ment of calets at Annapolis by repre-

ment of cadets at Annapolis by repre-sentatives in Congress, whose districts now are not represented there, was taken Mr. Crawford (Dem., N. C.) moved an amendment so as to authorize the ap-pointment of a cadet by a representative or delegate whose district or or delegate whose district or 'erritory was not represented at the academy by a bona-fide resident of the district. For this amendment a substitute was proposed by Mr. Boutelle (Rep., Me.), to restrict the appointments to those dis-ricts where the cadet was not a resi-dent at the time of appointment. It was agreed to, and, as thus amended, the bill was passed—151 to 67—over the objection of Mr. Reed, who said such a bill ought not to pass.

Mr. Sayers called up the conference report on the urgent deficiency bill. The Senate is recommended to recede from its amendment to the income tax proision, and the House to recede from its disagreement to the other amendments. The report was agreed to. On behalf of Chairman Wilson, who was unavoidably absent, Mr. McMillin presented the report of the Committee m Ways and Means, recommending the passage of the bill to repeal the provision of the tariff law imposing an ad-ditional duty of one-tenth of a cent a pound upon sugar imported from a coun-try which pays an export bounty on that
